CRIMINAL DOCKET 5:20-CR-1315-05

JUDGE MARINA MARMOLEJO

UNOPPOSED SECOND MOTION TO AMEND CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

TO THE HONORABLE MARINA MARMOLEJO:

David Bell asks the Court to amend the conditions of his release, and shows the following in support of this request:

1. Bell pleaded guilty to transporting undocumented aliens. A sentencing date has not be scheduled.
2. Bell has complied with all conditions of his pretrial release.
3. The Court recently granted a motion to amend Bell's conditions to allow him to accept a job offer from Cardinal Logistics, which is a company located in the Northern District of Mississippi. Bell's conditions were amended so he could move to Southhaven, Mississippi, in the Northern District to be closer to his work; and to allow him to drive a regularly scheduled route to Kansas City (rather than the small, ad hoc driving jobs Bell had previously been driving).
4. Bell now asks the Court to allow him to rent an apartment with co-defendant William Shepard so that they can share living expenses.
5. The AUSA and the Pretrial Services Office are not opposed to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David Adler
